

Disability Worker Screening and Working with Children Check Application

For use by workers who require a disability worker screening check (NDIS worker screening or Queensland disability worker screening) and a working with children check (blue card or exemption card).

Important notice: If you are eligible to apply for a blue card (please see disqualified person and negative notice holder† definitions in attached help guide), continue to complete this application. If you are not eligible, do not complete this form. Disqualified persons must complete an Eligibility Declaration and negative notice holders must complete the Application to Cancel a Negative Notice if two years have passed since the negative notice was issued.

Who can complete this form?

Workers can complete this form if:

- They are engaged or propose to be engaged by an NDIS service provider or state-funded service provider to undertake disability work in Queensland. This includes paid workers, volunteer workers and sole traders; and
- They also need a blue card or exemption card for working with children.

Please confirm with your employer that you need both screening checks before you apply.

If you have an email address and online access the quickest and easiest way to make your application is through our online application available at workerscreening.qld.gov.au.

How to complete this form?

- This form can only be completed by a worker who requires a disability worker screening check and working with children check (blue card or exemption card)
- Please print clearly, use BLOCK letters and indicate with a tick where required
- To help you complete the form refer to the attached 'Help Guide'
- Questions marked with an exclamation mark (!) have relevant information in the help guide on pages 12 – 14
- Delays in processing your application will occur if you do not complete the application correctly.

All sections marked with ▲ MUST be completed or your application can not be processed.

How will you use my information?

Your information will be used in accordance with the Disability Worker Screening Privacy Notice (see page 17) and Information Management Policy which is available on workerscreening.qld.gov.au.

▲ Eligibility requirements

The following questions relate to your eligibility to submit an application.

Do you hold a current NDIS Worker Screening Clearance issued by another sate or territory?

Yes No If your answer 'Yes' to this question you are not eligible to proceed with the application.

Do you have an outstanding NDIS Worker Screening Clearance application with another state or territory?

Yes No If your answer 'Yes' to this question you are not eligible to proceed with the application.

Do you hold a current exclusion or negative notice issued in Queensland under the Disability Services Act?

Yes No If your answer 'Yes' to this question you are not eligible to proceed with the application.

This question is about people who currently have any of the following outcomes issued in Queensland:

- a) Exclusion outcome for a disability worker screening application made after 1 February 2021
- b) Negative notice outcome for a yellow card application made before 1 February 2021

Do you hold a current NDIS worker screening exclusion issued by another state or territory?

Yes No If your answer 'Yes' to this question you are not eligible to proceed with the application.

Are you living in Queensland OR are you carrying out disability work in Queensland?

Yes No If your answer 'No' to this question you are not eligible to proceed with the application.

NDIS disability work is work that includes the delivery of NDIS supports or services to a person with disability. State disability work is work that includes providing disability services that is carried out for the department or a funded service provider. This includes volunteers and sole traders.

Are you engaged by a provider to carry out NDIS disability work or state disability work, or is a provider intending to engage you for this work?

Yes No If your answer 'No' to this question you are not eligible to proceed with the application.

Are you a negative notice holder for the purposes of the Working with Children Act (Qld)?

Yes No If your answer 'Yes' to this question you are not eligible to proceed with the application.

Do you already have a blue or exemption card?

Yes No

Is your blue or exemption card due for renewal? Your blue or exemption card is due for renewal 16 weeks out from your current card expiry date. You can find the expiry date on the front of your card.

Yes No

If your answer 'No' to this question you should proceed with a disability worker screening application only. You cannot proceed with a combined application if your blue card is not due for renewal.

What is your Blue Card expiry date?

I do not know my expiry date

Blue Card Services will check your expiry date. If your card is not due for renewal, the blue card component of your application will not be processed and will be discontinued.

I declare that the information provided here is correct and I understand that it is an offence to make a false or misleading statement.

Application type

I am applying for a disability worker screening check and a working with children check:

Blue card Exemption card

The exemption card is only applicable if you are a registered teacher in Queensland or a Queensland police officer who is working or volunteering with children outside of your professional duties as a teacher or police officer. You will be required to supply your Queensland registered teacher number or Queensland police identification number.

If you are a registered teacher in Queensland or a Queensland police officer who only works with children as part of your normal professional duties then you do not need a blue card or exemption card. You will only require a disability worker screening check and should not proceed with this combined application.

Identity and personal information

We are partnering with the Department of Transport and Main Roads (TMR) to deliver identity checks. You need a TMR Customer Reference Number (CRN) to make this application. It's the number on your driver licence, photo identification card or adult proof of age card. If you don't have a CRN, you can visit a TMR Customer Service Centre and apply for a CRN at no cost. You can find out more information about this process on our fact sheet 'Identity Verification'. People who live in remote areas with no online access and cannot access a Customer Service Centre, can contact the Worker Screening Unit and ask about an alternative process.

Please select a Queensland Transport and Main Roads (TMR) product.

▲ Declarations

You need to refer to either the NDIS worker screening and working with children check application declarations OR the Queensland disability worker screening and working with children check application declarations provided below. Do not complete both sets of declarations. If you are unsure of the type of application you need, please ask your employer.

NDIS worker screening and working with children check applicants only

Please only complete these declarations if you are applying for a combined NDIS worker screening and working with children check application. All check boxes in this section must be completed to proceed.

I declare that:

- I am the applicant named in this form and I have provided all other names or aliases that I use or have used in the past.
- The information provided by me for this application is true and correct and I understand it is an offence to provide false or misleading information.
- I consent to being screened under Part 5 of the Disability Services Act 2006.

Please note that once you undertake a worker screening application you will have a record created on the NDIS worker screening database. Please read the following information carefully before indicating your consent and understanding:

- I consent to the conduct of a Nationally Co-ordinated Criminal History Check including convictions, findings of guilt, pending charges, spent convictions, and non-conviction outcomes in accordance with the requirements each jurisdiction has in place with the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC).
- I consent to information from any police, court, tribunal, prosecuting authority, criminal intelligence agency, other Australian agencies who undertake screening for individuals who work or propose to provide services to children or vulnerable people or other authorised agency being obtained and for these agencies to disclose any information for the purposes of assessing my eligibility to work with children and ongoing checks while my application/working with children clearance remains current.
- I understand that the information obtained may also include disciplinary information from certain bodies, domestic violence information, adverse decisions made by other Australian Working with Children Check agencies and other information obtained under the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000.
- I consent to ongoing monitoring in all states and territories of any relevant criminal history information (including pending charges) from the time I lodge my application and if cleared, continuing while I hold an NDIS clearance and/or a working with children authority.
- I consent to my personal information being accessed by universities, other training institutes, recruitment agencies, placement companies and online matching services for the purpose of endorsing my NDIS clearance.
- I consent to the disclosure of my personal information to other worker screening units for the purposes of an NDIS Check and police agencies across Australia for the purposes of an NDIS Check and law enforcement purposes.
- I consent to enquiries being made to determine my eligibility to hold an NDIS Check clearance from any source considered necessary by the department including but not limited to, the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission, police services, courts and tribunals, prosecuting authorities, worker screening units, health professionals and government agencies (including Commonwealth and state/territory).
- I acknowledge that worker screening units are authorised under legislation to provide my personal information to the NDIS Commission for the purposes of the NDIS Commission undertaking its statutory functions in relation to the NDIS Worker Screening Database.
- I understand that my information will continue to be included in my record on the Database even if I no longer work in the NDIS sector.
- I understand that NDIS employers will be able to access information about me on the NDIS Worker Screening Database (unless they are no longer linked to me).
- I understand I cannot withdraw my consent to NDIS worker screening (Applicants may make a request, in writing, for their application to be withdrawn or for their NDIS clearance to be cancelled).
- I agree to the worker screening unit disclosing additional demographic information relating to me to the NDIS Commission. I understand that the NDIS Commission will handle the information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), including to use the information for its policy development, research and statistical reporting purposes.
- I understand that my personal details will be shared with Blue Card Services which administers the Working with Children Check.
- I consent for a photograph held by TMR to be used to produce the clearance card.

- I have read and understand the contents of this form and make all of the above declarations.
- I understand and will comply with my obligations including that I must notify the department if I change my name, contact details, or there is a change in my disability services employment and notify Blue Card Services if there is a change to my child-related employment, volunteer or business activities.
- I understand and will comply with my obligation to notify the department and Blue Card Services immediately if my police information changes.
- I have read and understood the attached privacy notice.

Important information from Blue Card Services

*Disqualified person

It is an offence for a disqualified person to make a blue card application. A disqualified person is someone who:

- has been convicted[‡] of a disqualifying offence, which includes having sex with a child (irrespective of the type of relationship eg. teenage partners), child exploitation offences, murder and other serious sexual or violent offences against an adult or child (irrespective of the penalty and regardless of when and where it occurred); or
- is the subject of:
 - reporting obligations or an offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004; or
 - a disqualification order issued by a court prohibiting them from applying for or holding a blue card; or
 - a sexual offender order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003; or
- is the respondent to an application for an offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004.

[‡] Conviction/convicted means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred.

[§] Non-conviction charge means, whether a person was charged as an adult or a child, a charge: that has been withdrawn; that has been the subject of a nolle prosequi, a no true bill or a submission of no evidence to offer; that led to a conviction that was quashed on appeal; or upon which a person was acquitted or disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of conviction.

A disqualified person can apply to be declared eligible to apply for a blue card in certain limited circumstances. Further information about disqualified persons is available from www.qld.gov.au/bluecard or by contacting Blue Card Services on 07 3211 6999 or 1800 113 611.

†Negative notice

It is an offence for a negative notice holder to make a blue card application. A negative notice holder is someone who:

- has been issued a negative notice after applying for a blue card; or
- was issued a negative notice after their blue card was cancelled due to a change in police or disciplinary information.

A negative notice holder can only apply to cancel a negative notice if two years have passed since the negative notice was issued, or in other limited circumstances. This can be done by completing the Application to Cancel a Negative Notice form. For more information about the blue card system and your obligations go to www.qld.gov.au/bluecard.

Privacy notice

The Department of Justice and Attorney-General (the department) is collecting, using and disclosing your personal information under the Disability Services Act 2006 (Qld) (the Act). The department also manages personal information in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld) (IP Act).

Your lodgement of a Disability Worker Screening application will involve the collection of your personal information. Your personal information is collected for the following purposes:

- to verify your identity, verification of you as a user and for security purposes
- to contact you in relation to your application for a clearance;
- process your application and determine your eligibility to hold a clearance;
- produce and issue your clearance card;
- monitor your ongoing eligibility to hold a clearance; and
- administering the disability worker screening system and meeting your obligations under the Act.

Your personal information (including the current status of your application or clearance) may also be disclosed to:

- prescribed entities, notifiable persons, potential employers and other government agencies;
- police for the purpose of obtaining police information in accordance with the Act;
- courts, and regulatory, governing, disciplinary or supervisory bodies, other Australian agencies responsible for screening individuals who work or provide services, or propose to do so, for people with disability, children or vulnerable people, including Blue Card Services;
- NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission;
- universities, other training institutes, recruitment agencies, placement companies and online matching services for the purpose of endorsing your clearance;
- TMR to verify identity and arrange for production of the physical clearance card;
- third parties which produce the physical clearance card; and
- the Department's Information and Communication Technology service providers for the purpose of system support and development.

The department and Blue Card Services collect and share personal and sensitive information for the purposes of the operation of the disability worker screening and the blue card systems. For example, the department may share your personal information with the Blue Card Services under the Act and the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 to:

- establish a match with your Blue Card record;
- obtain information from Blue Card Services in relation to the working with children eligibility assessment undertaken by Blue Card Services, including the assessment outcome and your ongoing eligibility to hold a Working with Children authority (blue or exemption card);
- notify Blue Card Services of the outcome of your Disability Worker Screening application and your ongoing eligibility to hold a disability worker screening clearance;
- send and receive information or documents relevant to the assessment of your eligibility to hold a disability worker clearance or a blue/exemption card.

The department will not disclose personal information to other third parties except in accordance with the Act and the IP Act or as authorised or required by law.

Your personal information may be transferred overseas in the following circumstances:

- where a user accesses the department's online services system whilst overseas (if applicable);
- where a service provider who provides support services for the system has servers located overseas (if applicable); and
- for the purpose of production of the physical card.

If you access the department's online services from outside Australia, you will be transferring your personal information overseas, at least to the device you use at the time you are accessing the online services.

By lodging an application for the purpose of Disability Worker Screening, you are consenting to your personal information being disclosed to the usual parties to whom the department discloses personal information under the DSA, as amended.

Your information may also be disclosed with your consent or as otherwise authorised or required by law.

Human Rights Section 58 of the Human Rights Act 2019 (Qld) requires public entities to act compatibly with human rights. The Department will give proper consideration to relevant human rights in its decision making.
